

Write 2 possible conversations that could take place between Gatsby and Daisy while Nick is outside. One conversation should be a pretty fair attempt at capturing what may have been said; the other can be as funny, ridiculous, silly, or foolish as you would like.

Be sure to keep in mind that Nick is gone for about a half hour, that it is raining the whole time, and that Daisy has been crying at some point. All of these things should show up.

I will collect and grade these, and I expect you to share at least one with the class.
